The Descendants of
WILLIAM CARLTON
son of
John and Nancy Alderman Carlton

William Carlton, the fifth child and fourth son of John Carlton and his wife Nancy Ann Alderman, was born in Sampson County, N. C., on October , 1807, and died at Fort Green, now in Hardee County, Fla., on December 16, 1875. He is buried in the Fort Green Methodist Church cemetery.

Sometime prior to 1830, William Carlton moved to South Georgia. His name occurs on the census rolls of Thomas County in 1830, of Lowndes County in 1840, and, I believe, without checking the official records, of Thomas County in 1850. About 1852 he and his family moved to Florida, and apparently they settled first in Marion County at or near Fort McCoy, subsequently moving to Fort Green.

On December 24, 1829, probably in Lowndes County, Ga., William Carlton married Harriet Hendry, born in Liberty County, Ga., on March 28, 1812, died at Fort Green, Fla., on May 23, 1898, daughter of William Hendry and Nancy McFail, his wife. William Hendry was born in New Hanover Co., N. C., on February 12, 1783, the third son of Robert Hendry (R. S.) and Ann Lee, his wife, the said Robert Hendry having come to America from the Island of Arran, off the coast of Scotland, about 1750-55. Nancy McFail was born in Barnwell Co., S. C., on November 4, 1786, daughter of James McFail (R. S.) and his wife Judith.

For those interested in membership in patriotic organizations, all living members of this family recorded hereafter are eligible for membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution or the Sons of the American Revolution through the service of at least four of their ancestors, as follows:

- (1) Thomas Carleton, father of John and grandfather of William, served in the North Carolina Militia in Duplin County, N. C.
- (2) David Alderman, father of Nancy Ann Alderman Carlton and grandfather of William served in several capacities in North Carolina.
- (3) Robert Hendry, grandfather of Harriet Hendry Carlton, wife of William, rendered service and was awarded a land grant for his services.
- (4) James McFail, grandfather of Harriet Hendry Carlton, wife of William, rendered service to the American Colonies.

The English pedigrees of the Carlton and Carleton family, such as are available, indicate descent from a number of the Magna Charta Surety Barons; but we are unable to establish a definite connection between our ancestor Thomas Carleton and any specific branch of the English family. However, through our Alderman family connections, which family is descended from the Case and Spencer families of England and New England, descent from a number of the Surety Barons can be proven; and thus living females in this family tree are eligible for membership in the Magna Charta Dames, while living males are eligible for membership in the Sons of the Barons of Runnymede.

William and Harriet Hendry Carlton were the parents of twelve children, three of whom died in infancy or childhood. These children are as follows:

1. John Sales Carlton (1830 - 1862) who married Martha Jane Cason.
2. America J. Carlton (1832-1835) who died as a small child.
3. James C. Carlton (1833-1864 or 1865) who married Martha Piety Grantham.
4. Nancy Carlton (1835-1917) who married Wesley Coker.
5. William Thomas Carlton (1838-1864 or 1865) who died unmarried.
6. David Wright Carlton (1840-1858) who died unmarried in early manhood.
7. Robert Allen Carlton (1842-1926) who married Emma Adelaide Harrison.
8. Alderman G. W. Carlton (1843-1862) who died unmarried in the Civil War.
9. Mary Elizabeth Carlton (1845-1925) who married Robert Roberts.
10. Jency Adeline Carlton (1848-1851) who died in early childhood.
11. Steven Marion Carlton (1851-1852) who died in infancy.
12. Henry Eli Carlton (1854-1934) who married Cordelia Wilkison and Nina Daniels.

1. John Sales Carlton was born, probably, in Lowndes Co., Ga., on December 6, 1830. He enlisted and saw service with the Army of the Confederacy and became seriously ill while in the service. As the story was handed down to my generation by my grandfather, he was sent home to recuperate; and he stopped with relatives in Perry, Fla., became worse, and died there on June 28, 1862. He is buried in the old Friendship Cemetery near Moseley Hall in the southern part of Madison County, Fla., and a stone identifies his grave. On December 4, 1851, in Madison Co., Fla., he married Martha Jane Cason, born August 2, 1838, a daughter of Silas Cason and Abigail Langford, his wife. After the war, Martha Jane Carlton and her children moved to the vicinity of Fort Green, Fla., where her father-in-law had settled; and she died there on October 7, 1893. She is buried in the Fort Green Methodist Church cemetery.

Five children were born of this marriage, three sons and two daughters

2. America J. Carlton was born in Lowndes Co., Ga., on June 17, 1832 and died there on June 18, 1835. I do not know her burial place.

3. James C. Carlton was born, probably, in Lowndes Co., Ga., on December 31, 1833, and died while serving with the Confederate Army in 1864 or 1865. It is possible that he died while a prisoner in the Federal Military Prison at Rock Island, Illinois, though I have not confirmed this. On November 20, 1856 he married Martha Piety Grantham, on whom I have no further information other than that she married again after James Carlton's death. There were two children born to this marriage, Bascom Carlton and James Alpheus (Alf) Carlton.

4. Nancy Carlton was born in either Lowndes or Thomas Co., Ga., on December 2, 1835 and died at Gardner, Hardee County, Fla., on March 19, 1917. On February 19, 1854 she was married to Wesley Coker, born February 25, 1834, died September 27, 1898, son of Daniel D. Coker and his wife Eunice. Both Nancy and Wesley Coker are buried in the Coker Cemetery a short distance west of Peace River and two or three miles southeast of Limestone, Fla. They had nine children of whom I have record.

5. William Thomas Carlton was born in either Lowndes or Thomas Co., Ga., on February 16, 1838, and died in 1864 while serving in the Confederate Army. It is my understanding that he was taken prisoner and was imprisoned at Rock Island, Illinois, where he died in 1864. He was unmarried.

6. David Wright Carlton was born in Thomas County, Ga., on December 5, 1840 and died on August 4, 1858. The place of his death and burial is not known to me, but I am of the opinion that he must have died at Fort McCoy, Fla., and that he is buried there.

7. Robert Allen Carlton was born at Thomasville, Ga., on February 16, 1842 and died at Ocala, Fla., on October 7, 1928. On March 30, 1870, near Fort McCoy, Fla., he married Emma Adelaide Harrison, born in Merriwether Co., Ga., on October 14, 1848, died at Ocala, Fla., on August 3, 1936, daughter of Thomas Harrison and Mary Aylor, his wife. Robert Allen Carlton and his wife are buried at Ocala. They had eight children. Of five brothers serving with the Confederate Army, only Robert Allen Carlton lived to return home.

8. Alderman G. W. Carlton was born at Thomasville, Ga., on November 16, 1843, died on March 18, 1862. He was a soldier in the Confederate Army, but the place of his death and burial are not known to me.

9. Mary Elizabeth Carlton was born, probably, in Thomas Co., Ga., on June 17, 1845 and died in the New Zion settlement on Horse Creek, in the western part of Hardee Co., Fla., on May 19, 1925. On September 1, 1859 she was married to Robert (Rob) Roberts, born June 19, 1842, died February 21, 1912, son of Joel Roberts and Sarah Youngblood, his wife. She and her husband are buried in the New Zion church cemetery. They had a large family.

10. Mary Adeline Carlton was probably born in Thomas Co., Ga., on January 31, 1848 and died on August 3, 1851. The place of her death and burial is not known to me, but it might have been near Fort McCoy, Fla.

11. Steven Marion Carlton was born March 6, 1851 and died March 20, 1852. It is not known at this time whether he was born in Georgia or in Florida.

12. Henry Eli Carlton (or Eli Hendry Carlton as recorded in the old family Bible) was born at Fort McCoy, Fla., on November 15, 1854 and died at Arcadia, Fla., on September 30, 1934. On (date unknown, but about 1875) he married first A. Cordelia Willison, born in Bradford Co., Fla., on August 6, 1856, died at Seabreeze, Fla., on July 5, 1902. By her he had nine children, four sons and five daughters. On June 8, 1904, at Hawthorne, Fla., he married secondly Nina Daniels, born at Greenville, N. C., on June 23, 1878. She is still living (1959) at Arcadia, Fla. There were no children by the second marriage.

Third Generation, Descendants of William Carlton

1. The children of John Sales Carlton², son of William¹.

1-1. Marion Gardner Carlton³, (John Sales², William¹), was born at Madison, Fla., on December 1, 1852 and died at his home in the Friendship Community, a few miles southeast of Zolfo Springs, Fla., on January 4, 1939. In 1869 he moved from Madison County to Fort Green then in Manatee Co., Fla., with his widowed mother and the four younger children, where he grew to manhood. On February 9, 1873, at Bartow, Fla., he married Sarah Frances McKinney, born in Mississippi on February 2, 1851, died at Zolfo Springs, Fla., on October 14, 1923, daughter of Thomas F. McKinney and Elizabeth Carson, his wife. In 1875 they settled in the woods two miles west of the present town of Wauchula, Fla., and in 1879 they moved to the Friendship community. Ten children were born to this marriage, and all but one lived to maturity. Marion G. Carlton, his wife, and several children are buried at Friendship.

1-2. William Silas Carlton was born in Madison Co., Fla., on January 2, 1855 and died in Madison Co., Fla., on January 28, 1863. He is buried in the Friendship cemetery near his father, and a single stone marks both graves. The name on the gravestone is "William Sales Carlton", but my grandfather (Marion G. Carlton) always spoke of him as "Silas". I assume he was named for his two grandfathers, William Carlton and Silas Mason.

1-3. James Henry Carlton was born in Madison Co., Fla., on November 23, 1856 and died at his home in the Friendship Community southeast of Zolfo Springs, Fla., on October 25, 1933. On February 3, 1876, in Polk Co., Fla., he married Mary Ellen Durrance, born on February 4, 1855, died October 24, 1912, daughter of Jesse Durrance and Priscilla Altman, his wife. Ten children were born to this marriage, four dying in infancy and another in childhood. James H. Carlton subsequently married Mrs. Sallie Holzendorf, a widow; but had no issue by the second marriage. James H. Carlton and his first wife, and a number of their children, are buried in the Friendship Cemetery.

Mack Durrance is buried in the Joshua Creek Cemetery about ten miles southeast of Arcadia, Fla. I have a record of only three children.

Moody, his wife. Four children were born to this marriage, two sons and two daughters.

His first wife was Filouria Lenora Wilkison, born in Bradford Co., Fla., on April 28, 1864, died at Wauchula, Fla., on June 13, 1922. The date and place of their marriage are not known to me, though it probably was about 1882. Both are buried in the Wauchula Cemetery. Eleven children were born to this marriage. In 1924 James Alpheus Carlton married secondly Mrs. Helena Holzen-dorf Morrison, a widow. No children were born to the second marriage.

4-1. Eunice Ann (Nicey) Coker³, (Nancy J. Carlton² Coker, William Carlton¹), was born January 28, 1855 in Madison Co., Fla., and was married to John Wesley Stephenson (or Ste-phens). The date of her death is not known to me; but she was still living in Madison County, aged 91 years, in October of 1945. Nothing is known of her family.

4-2. Daniel Coker³, (Nancy J. Carlton², William¹), was born April 1, 1856 in Madison Co., Fla., and lived to be, as I recall, about 97 years of age. He died at Cardned, Fla., between Wauchula and Arcadia, and probably is buried there; but I do not know the date of his death. On October 7, 1875 he married Elizabeth Albritton, born February 18, 1856 in Alachua Co., Fla., daughter of Thomas Albritton. They settled first in the vicinity of Limestone, Fla., and later moved across Peace River to where the community of Cardner now stands. They reared nine children.

Author's Note: This concludes the material that I have available at this time on the family and descendants of William Carlton and his wife, Harriet Hendry Carlton. Readers will note that some branches of the family - especially the Roberts and Coker branches - have been cut off short. In this work I am making an effort to carry the family on down to the grandchildren of any Carlton woman who married into another family, giving complete data on date and place of birth, date and place of death (if deceased), and date and place of marriage, together with name of husband or wife, where married.

In many places you will find that information - perhaps information about yourself or a branch of the family that you are particularly interested in - is incomplete. Each of you who reads this outline is urged to send any additional information that you can supply to the compiler of these records so that the family history may eventually be complete. I cannot see all of you on my occasional trips to Florida; and many of you I do not know except by name. Many letters which I have written asking for information on family connections have gone unanswered, even when I enclosed postage for a reply. If this work is to be done, it requires the cooperation of many people. Again let me urge each of you to contribute any information that you can. No bit of information is too large and none is too small to be worthy of my attention.

The Ancestry of

STEPHEN CARLTON

John Carlton, the father of Stephen Carlton, was born in Duplin County, N. C., on April 20, 1775, about the time Paul Revere's saddle cooled off from his now famous ride; so this branch of the Carlton clan definitely came into being simultaneously with the United States of America. John Carlton grew to manhood in Duplin County, and there he married, about 1797, the date has not been fully confirmed, Nancy Ann Alderman, born on November 17, 1775, daughter of David Alderman, a Revolutionary Soldier, and Jemima Hall, his wife. David Alderman was the son of Daniel Alderman and Abigail Harris; Daniel Alderman was son of Thomas Alderman and Mary Segrove; and Thomas Alderman was son of William Alderman and Mary Case, said William Alderman having come to Massachusetts from England about 1670.

The Case family is related to the Spencer family of England and America; and through this line our family connections can be traced back to a number of the Surety Barons who enforced the provisions of the Magna Charta after King John had been forced to sign that immortal document at Runnymede in 1215.

John Carlton and his family moved to Bulloch County, Ga., about 1821; and a few years later they moved to Thomas County, where several of the children already had gone. The younger children grew to manhood and womanhood, and most if not all of them married there. In his later years, John Carlton sold his possessions in Thomas County and moved to Madison County, Florida, where he spent his last years. He died on February 26, 1868 and his wife died on June 4, 1867. Both are buried in the Friendship Cemetery near Moseley Hall, Fla., and their graves are plainly marked, though the gravestones are small.

Children born to this marriage were as follows:

1. Rev. Thomas Carlton (1799 - 1841) who married 1st. Nancy Ward, 2nd. Lucretia Seward.
2. Polly Carlton (1801 - 1890) who married John Chastain.
3. Alderman Carlton (1803 - 1856) who married Martha Maria Alderman, his cousin.
4. Stephen Carlton (1805 - 1886) who is the subject of this sketch.
5. William Carlton (1807 - 1875) who married Harriet Hendry.
6. Elizabeth Carlton (1808 - 1862) who married John Simmons.
7. Lydia Carlton (1812 - 1898) who married 1st James E. Hendry, 2nd. Benjamin Moody.
8. John Wright Carlton (1818 - 1894) who married Mrs. Susan Lee Murphy, nee Cason.
9. Martha Ann Carlton (1820 - 1900) who married Robert McFall Hendry.

John Carlton was the oldest son and the third child of Thomas Carleton and his wife Martha, of Duplin County, N. C. Thomas Carleton is said by some, including the late Milton D. Wilson, of Bartow, Fla., to have been born in Chester County, Pa., on May 10, 1747; but this I have not been able to confirm to my satisfaction. Although there were some Carletons in Chester County from 1711 until the time of the Revolution or later, I am unable to find a definite connection between them and our branch of the family. Neither can I confirm that Thomas was descended from the Carletons who settled at Rowley, Mass., with the Rev. Ezekiel Rogers and his company in 1638. Although this has been claimed by a number of people who have worked up abbreviated family histories, the descendants of Edward Carleton of Rowley have been pretty well accounted for up to the time of the Revolutionary War - after our own ancestors were already established in North Carolina; and up to that time none of them had migrated southward. I much prefer to think that our ancestors were early settlers in either Virginia or North Carolina; and there is some proof of this.

Thomas Carleton died in Duplin County, N. C., on October 3, 1795, leaving a will which is on record in that county. In his will he named the following children as heirs: Rachel, Anna, John, Lydia, Stephen, and Thomas. Another daughter, Elizabeth, married Rev. Peter Carlton, son of John (another of Thomas's), and died fairly young and without issue.

The Descendants of
son of
John and Nancy Alderman Carlton

Stephen Carlton, the fourth child and third son of John Carlton and his wife Nancy Ann Alderman, was born in Sampson County, N. C., on August 3, 1805 and died in Polk County, Fla., on January 9, 1886. He is buried in the Mount Pisgah Cemetery about five miles northeast of Bowling Green, Fla., just off a paved road that runs northward from the County Line Road to Fort Meade.

Prior to 1830, Stephen Carlton moved to Thomas County, Ga., where his name occurs on the census lists of 1830, 1840, and 1860.

Steven Carlton was married three times. His first wife was Eunice Bankston, said to have been from Alabama, and the date and place of this marriage are not known to me at this time. However, it was prior to 1829, for their oldest child was born in that year. His second wife was Sarah (or Dora) Wells, a native of North Carolina, whom he married at Moultrie, Ga., on February 14, 1837. His third wife was Mrs. Martha Dampier, a widow, whom he married sometime after 1854 and probably as late as 1880.

Issue of the first marriage, so far as I have been able to determine, were one son and three daughters. By the second marriage there were three sons and four daughters; and by the third marriage there was a daughter who died young.

Children of Stephen Carlton and Eunice Bankston were:

1. Archibald Mills Carlton, who married Mary Ann Simmons.
2. Melissa Carlton, who married Abel Johnson.
3. Matilda Carlton, who married Daniel Elwell.
4. Mary E. Carlton, who married George Colvin.

Children of Stephen Carlton and Dora Wells were:

5. Martha Jane Carlton, who married Jake Hurst.
6. Nancy Carlton, who married Alderman Wilson.
7. Susan Carlton, who married William Roland.
8. Rebecca Carlton (twin to John D.), who married John Wilson.
9. John D. Carlton, who married Louvenia Hutchinson.
10. Thomas Carlton, who married Mrs. Lucinda Murphy, nee Tanner.
11. Elisha Alderman Carlton, who married Elizabeth Murphy.

Children of Stephen Carlton and Matilda Dampier Carlton were:

12. Lida E. Carlton, who died at the age of 4 years and is buried by her father.

* * * * *

1. Archibald Mills Carlton was born in Thomas County, Ga., on August 20, 1829. He served in the Army of the Confederacy, and died of dysentery in a military hospital in Virginia on March 30, 1863, and is buried in the Mount Vernon Cemetery in Virginia. On December 25, 1846, in Thomas County, Ga., he married his first cousin, Mary Ann Simmons, daughter of John Simmons and Elizabeth Carlton, who was born June 15, 1827, possibly in Coffee County, Ga., died June 21, 1911 in Polk County, Fla. She is buried at Fort Meade.

Apparently Archibald Mills Carlton and his family remained in Thomas County, Ga., until about 1855, when they moved to Taylor County, Fla., near Perry, where the last four children were born. After his death, his widow apparently moved to Polk County, Fla., with one of the children.

Ten children were born of this marriage, seven sons and three daughters.

This concludes my records of the descendants of Stephen Carlton down to the present time. I realize that it is far from complete, and I would very much like to obtain the necessary information which will permit me to bring it to completion. This can be done only with YOUR help. If you can furnish further information about the families of any of the people in this record, please send such information to me at the address given below. Information on present residence, births, deaths, and marriages is desired, with name of person married, together with date and place of birth and names of parents of those marrying into the Carlton family. I would also like information on the business, trade, or profession of adult males; summary of military service, if any; church, civic, and fraternal affiliations, etc. Eventually this material, with similar material on the descendants of Stephen Carlton's four brothers and four sisters, will find its way into publication in book form. Anything that YOU can contribute will be useful; and however small it may be, it is IMPORTANT.
